

GEN. WEYLER
IS RECALLEDHis Successor Has Been Appointed.Premier Sagasta's Final Announcement.He Tells Weyler in a Pleasant
Way That a "Pacifist"
Is Not Wanted.

MADRID, (midnight), October 8.—The cabinet has decided upon the immediate recall of General Weyler from Cuba. A decree will be issued appointing Captain General Blanco y Arenas, Marquis of Pena-Plata, governor general of the island. The Queen Regent will sign the decree tomorrow.

According to El Herald, 20,000 reinforcements will accompany General Blanco to Cuba.

In the course of the cable message sent by Captain General Weyler to Premier Sagasta, placing his post in Cuba at the disposal of the government, he said: "If the functions which I have heretofore performed have been worthy of the confidence of the government of Cuba, I should have hesitated to resign. But the two-fold character of my mission and my duty as commander-in-chief in the face of the enemy prevent my tendering my resignation."

"Nevertheless, although I can rely upon the unconditional support of the government and the public opinion, I would be insufficient without the confidence of the government. This confidence could be necessary to enable us to put an end to the war which has been virtually concluded from our lines at Sancti Spiritus. I thank you for your explanation and value your frankness. I wish to assure you that the government recognizes your services and values them as they deserve, but it thinks a change of policy, in order to succeed, requires that the authorities should be at one with the minister. This has nothing to do with the confidence I have in you by the government, but the liberals have always said that the responsibility for a given policy does not fall upon those who carry it out, but upon the government inspiring it. I shall communicate your communication to the government shortly."

LAVASA, October 8.—General Weyler gave today an emphatic and categorical denial to the reports that he would resist removal from his command in Cuba and in certain contingencies might espouse the cause of the Carlists. He said, according to the official account, "My principles and my military record are firm guarantees that I will never oppose the constituted government, whatever it may be. I never have put obstacles in the way of the government and I never shall. I have always obeyed orders, and I always shall. So far as popular demonstrations are concerned, I accept them only as expressions of approval of my military policy and as tokens of personal sympathy."

The merchants of the island, according to the official account, continue to send cable messages to Premier Sagasta, expressing their approval of General Weyler's campaign and their entire confidence in him.

Melanie Ana Milan de Bondon, who has been in charge of the hall at the Casa de Regencia, where Sagasta and Evangelina Quintero were confined, and in the house in San Rafael street the police several months ago found trunks containing dynamite and cartridges, one of the four employees, who, with the jailer, have been arrested and confined, the inquiry being made into the circumstances of the escape of Senorita Cosio.

Money Order System Extended.
WASHINGTON, October 8.—The post-office department has adopted a policy of general extension of the money order system. First Assistant Postmaster General Heath believes that any post-office wanting money order facilities should be given them.

Captain Humphrey reports that the San Diego party of fifteen gold hunters, headed by ex-Sheriff O'Neil of San Luis Obispo county, bound for Copper River, had arrived at Prince William Sound on September 15th and started up the river the next day. They were all well and hopeful.

A Freight Train Derailed.
RESO, Nev., October 8.—An eastbound freight train was derailed about 10 o'clock this evening fifteen miles east of Truckee. The engine and six cars were reported to have been badly hurt. The track was torn up for several hundred feet, but it is expected that the train will be cleared away by the morning. Passenger trains will be delayed six or eight hours.

It is said the expedition will consist of 200 horses, 100 oxen, 10 dog teams and 6 packers, and that provisions will be carried over the snow for market at Dawson City. It is not known what route they will take.

LOVE AND LAUDANUM.

Dramatic Suicide of a Deserted Wife.

CHICAGO, October 8.—In a clump of weeds on Euclid avenue between Seventy-third and Seventy-fourth streets, two boys today found the body of a woman, evidently a suicide, lying half hidden among the weeds and tall grass. Clutched in her hand was a telegram addressed Mrs. D. P. O'Connell, Manhattan Beach hotel, Chicago, sent from a small town in Tennessee, September 25th, and which read as follows: "Will leave for Cuba tonight. (Signed) Dan." Two bottles, one labeled laudanum and the other paragon, both empty, were found in the grass beside her. Mrs. O'Connell and her husband were attendants at a bath house at Windsor Park during the summer. About September 15th, O'Connell left the hotel and after drawing all her savings, amounting to about $800, from the bank disappeared. The lady cashier at the bath department disappeared simultaneously. She was next heard of in Nashville and from the telegram found in the dead woman's hand, the couple are now supposed to be in Cuba.

YELLOW FEVER RECORD.

Unrestfulness Arises in a Virginia Town.

NEW ORLEANS, October 8.—Up to 6 o'clock this evening there had been forty-nine new cases reported and five deaths.

EAST UNION, Va., October 8.—An epidemic of fever six miles south of here is causing considerable alarm among the inhabitants. Physicians differ in their opinions as to the kind of fever. Thirty-one deaths have occurred in the past eighteen days. The citizens of the town are demanding that the Board of Health quarantine against it.

A Mystery of the Sea.

LOS ANGELES, October 8.—The identity of the woman whose body was found floating in the ocean off Santa Monica Thursday is still a mystery. The coroner's jury today rendered a verdict of death by drowning. The appearance of the body indicated that the young woman might have been a domestic. She had nearly brown hair, a round full face, brown eyes, small but regular nose, brown, large upper teeth but no fillings.

Stockton Insane Asylum.
STOCKTON, October 8.—At the meeting of the board of managers of the state asylum today monthly and quarterly reports were received. There are at present 1540 inmates in the hospital. The appointment of Dr. W. H. Washburn as second assistant physician was approved and confirmed.

WHEAT IS STRONG

It Advances Steadily to
92 1/2 Cents.The Drought Possibilities Govern
the Situation and the Prices Alike.

CHICAGO, October 8.—Although the Liverpool market opened at a decline of 3/4d and at a decline of 1/2d to 3/4d yesterday, the local market showed no such disposition. Opening sales were at a 1/4c to 3/4c advance, and soon the market was 1/2c to 3/4c above the previous day's closing price.

There was a decided tendency among the local traders to cover up all open deals and remain even on the market during the coming two days' intervention, both factors being a little nervous over the possible developments in the principal European export engagements.

Monday, December wheat, which closed yesterday at 91 1/2c, opened today at 91 3/4c. The shorts got in their work first, the result being an advance to 92 1/2c.

The price dropped to 91c shortly afterward, and for some time the market hung around that figure. The world's visible supply of wheat and flour at the close of business was estimated at 19,000,000 bushels of wheat, against 19,000,000 bushels on September 1st and 18,000,000 bushels on October 1st, last year. The stocks in store in the principal European export countries are estimated at 31,000,000 bushels, against 29,000,000 a month ago and 30,000,000 bushels a year ago.

Receipts for the day at Minneapolis and Duluth aggregated 112,000 bushels, against 100,000 last week and 150,000 last year. Chicago receipts were 202 cars. Primary market receipts were 1,574,000 bushels. New York reported export engagements of thirty-eight boats. The Michigan crop reports showed a total yield of 24,925,000 bushels of wheat this year, against 25,270,000 last year.

This year apparently has no little influence as did the Liverpool market. An important factor concerning the European wheat crop was entirely lost. The Liverpool figures, it is estimated, showed a total yield of 25,000,000 bushels as his previous estimate and against 24,000,000 as the crop last year. The Liverpool weakness was explained by the fact that there had been holding sales against No. 2 spring wheat recently sent from Chicago.

It is expected the visible supply statement on Monday will show an increase of 1,500,000 bushels against 1,500,000 a month ago. The local market, which has heretofore been quite bullish on the situation, was out in an extremely bullish statement regarding the unprecedented drought and limited area seeded.

There was weak mood of the session with the trade a good deal on the evening-up order. Drought talk seemed to have lost its influence for the time being as cash and dull and moved within an exceedingly narrow range, prices being influenced almost entirely by the action of corn.

THE WAVE OF
PROSPERITYIt Is Spreading Over the Country.The Smallest Number of Failures Since 1892.In the Iron Trade Orders Cannot Be Filled Within Several Months.

NEW YORK, October 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say in its issue of tomorrow:

While failures were the smallest ever known in any quarter since 1892, and business payments through banks the largest ($68,000,000) ever known in September, the speculators who profess anxiety about Cuba, or fever at the south, or a municipal election, still have some influence.

Helping them just now is the fact that after extraordinary purchases for replacement of stocks from about every section or town there must necessarily be for a time less buying from that quarter. Yet business is still increasing. The productive force steadily enlarges, the distribution of wages affords an increasing fund for purchases, and the foundations are laid for a larger business hereafter. The week's exchanges are 8.8 per cent larger than in 1892.

Crop reports which have widely differed now agree in putting the yield of wheat about 380,000,000 to 390,000,000 bushels, which is nearly 200,000 bushels more than what is required for home use, keeping stocks as they were July 1st, the lowest for several years, against the aggregate, which has been at the foreign export since July 1st have been nearly as heavy as in the past year, with 2,385,781 bushels from Atlantic ports, flour included, for the last week, against 2,240,571 last week, against 2,240,571 last year, the recovery of 1 1/2c in price for the week is not without reason. Western receipts continue to exceed last year's 8,001,321 bushels against 7,243,500 for the week.

A large increase in the production of pig iron and heavy machinery of late held on speculation have caused a decline of 15 cents to $1.00 for Bessemer or pig iron, though the great force there has advanced 25 cents, and pig iron is stronger at Chicago and Eastern markets.

But finished products grow stronger, with a demand outrunning the capacity of works in operation in many branches, so that delays in delivery in sheets and tin plate bars are embarrassing, and in some other branches orders cannot be filled within one or two months.

Building of more vessels on the lakes and coast, heavy orders for skeels, barges, rods and pipe have caused advances averaging half of 1 per cent for week or oil stock; net general gain is not quite 10 per cent from the lowest point. Reports of combination in steel rails are denied, and it is said that only three large pipe producers will agree on price, while the rod and wire compact appears to be still in the future.

Wool has now reached an average of 10.37 cents per pound for 100 quotations of domestic by Cash & Co. of Philadelphia, showing a rise of 8 cents since a year ago, with a much heavier rise of some qualities, but from an average decline of 11 cents from March, 1893.

Speculative sales still account for most of the advance, but the rise of wool in the chief markets 14,381,000 pounds for the week, of which $5,955,890 were domestic, but manufacturers are purchasing some wool for mixtures with the cheaper wools and hold for some months past.

The rise has so greatly exceeded the advance in prices of woolen goods that the mills might have to pause before for the very large stocks purchased in the week. Goods are strong, with a further advance in some grades, but in the aggregate, thus far not 30 per cent from the lowest point against 60 per cent advance in the average price of wool.

Valuable for the week were 212 against 202 last year and 23 in Canada against 40 last year.

New York, October 8.—Broadstreet and Wall street in the current week are not so far from the prolonged drought in Kentucky, Illinois and Kansas, portions of Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas. The report of severe damage in Kansas and parts of Nebraska and Iowa, where early planted wheat is not badly doing out, that planted later is not likely to sprout. Fall plowing is not likely to sprout. Fall plowing is not likely to sprout.

Manufacturing industries throughout the West, particularly iron and steel, continue active and there is an increasing tendency on the part of the interior merchants to remit promptly.

While the volume of trade has increased at Chicago, it is not so much in the current week. There is an improvement in business in the South, Alabama having raised the quarantine against Georgia cities and central and northern Texas has resumed commerce with Galveston. Planters continue to hold cotton, which delays collections.

Higher prices this week are reported for cotton, which has been declining for some time. Coal and clothing are in sympathy with wool, for naval stores, under heavy purchases by large traders in wheat, flour and eggs. Print cloth, lard, beef and sugar have advanced. Hides are weaker, lard is lower and December pigs sold off 50 cents a ton under heavy speculative offering, notwithstanding the iron and steel markets as a whole remain active and firm.

Exports of wheat (flour included as wheat) from both coasts of the United States and Canada this week show a falling off, aggregating only 4,835,841 bushels against 5,534,000 bushels last week, but compared with 4,050,000 bushels in the week a year ago, 2,224,000 bushels in 1895.

There are 237 business failures reported throughout the United States this week, compared with 131 last week, 291 in the week a year ago, 271 two years ago and as compared with 408 in the first week of October, 1893.

DISQUALIFIED BY LAW.

The Medical Director of the Ag-news Asylum in Trouble.

F. M. Sponoglio, medical director of the Agnews insane asylum, is in danger of losing his position because of a disagreement with Steward Young of that institution. Dr. Sponoglio was at one time a resident of Fresno and received his appointment through Governor Budd. Sponoglio and Young have not worked together harmoniously for some time, and recently the former brought charges against Young in an effort to oust him from his position. The story did not submit tamely, and has resulted in bringing to the attention of the board of trustees Sponoglio's inability to legally hold the position.

The directors met next Wednesday, when they will consider the charges. The charges against Sponoglio are based on the law requiring that to hold the position of medical director three years' experience as assistant medical director in an insane asylum is necessary. Sponoglio, it is claimed, has not had the required three years' experience, and Young's friends say he must resign or else be ousted from his position by the trustees.

Four Tramps Arrested.
Last night, shortly after 12 o'clock, Special Officer Smith arrested four suspicious characters. One of them broke away from the officer before he got to the jail. The remaining three were put in jail, with the charge of vagrancy placed against them. The four were walking up and down the streets, looking into various places of business and apparently on an inspection tour with robbery in view. After watching them for some time, Officer Smith arrested them, and their records will be investigated.

A SANGER HOLDUP

But It Took Place in a
Poker Game.Having Lost His Employer's
Money, Fred Vincent Invents
a Robbery Story.

Fred Vincent, a traveling salesman in the employ of J. O. Colwell, manufacturer of perfumes and extracts, last Monday told the Sanger officers a thrilling tale of how he had been robbed near Centerville that day. He was jogging along the road with his team and wagon, he related, when suddenly two masked men stepped out from opposite sides of the highway and, leveling shotguns and sixshooters at him, in tones of thunder ordered him to halt.

Of course he obeyed the order. He had about $15 of his employer's money in his pocket, which he had realized from the sale of his wares, the country people having made purchases of the extracts very readily. He was confronted with what looked like the armament of a battle when Mr. Vincent decided that under such circumstances it was best to comply with the demand for money. Even then he hesitated for a moment, looking for some way in which he might put the highwaymen to flight.

But with loud curses they ordered him to climb down from the seat at once. At the same time one of the robbers advanced and prodded the salesman in the ribs with the muzzle of a gun.

Vincent obeyed the order to alight. The highwayman held a shotgun to Vincent's stomach, while the other turned out his pockets and relieved him of the $15 belonging to Mr. Colwell. Vincent was fully masked, and Vincent told Constable Irvine that he would not be able to recognize him, even should he see them again. After they had committed the robbery the highwaymen returned to the woods along side the road and disappeared.

Such was the tale that Mr. Vincent told the Sanger officer, and Mr. Irvine having no reason to believe otherwise accepted the story as a good truth. He proceeded to make investigations, and it did not take him long to come to a different conclusion.

The officer learned that at the time Vincent said the robbery took place the young man was engaged in a poker game at a saloon in Sanger, and that the amount he last very nearly reached $15, was "the same old story" that having lost his employer's money Vincent invented the robbery story in an attempt to deceive Mr. Colwell.

It has developed that Vincent adopted a similar plan to get himself out of a year ago. He had Constable Goodrich scouring the country for about two weeks in search of the mythical highwaymen.

Yesterday morning Mr. Colwell dismissed the clever young man from his employ.

Walter Pickett of the Laguna de Tachon grant was in Fresno yesterday.
